A Message from Max

TWO EVENTS TO ENJOY

Yippee yi yay coyote....no..... not a Bruce Willis quote from "Die Hard," but an indirect reference to this year's school production....WINDUST, which is the third musical by John Reynolds and Shade Smith. Essentially WINDUST is a satire of the Western genre and chronicles the lives of the townspeople in Little River – a town with a problem that needs solving. Our performances are scheduled for Wednesday 21 and Thursday 22 September 2016.

Drama and music are an integral part of the Arts curriculum and the opportunity for our students to come together as a school-wide ensemble provides them with considerable creative scope to develop their individual characters, design and create costumes and props whilst expanding their dramatic skills. There would be few schools where every child is given the chance to be in the cast of a production – at Matahui it is a given.

that you will dress up in your finest Western gear to help us recreate the old west. So start assembling your Clint Eastwood or Annie Oakley garb so that you are ready.

A group of our parents are also busy preparing for the biennial school ball, the theme being "KIWIANA." We hope that you are all planning to come and that you will entice your friends to join you. The ball is a highly social way to connect with the community in an atmosphere of fun and frivolity.....and, it gives you the opportunity to wear something that you feel strongly reflects our KIWINESS.

See you at the ball and the production.

Ka kite
Max
